Our team

At the heart of Natural Grace in Beresfield is a deeply compassionate team with Kylie, Glenda, and Sophie, each bringing lived experience, professional dedication, and heartfelt care to their work.

Glenda and Kylie, both trained end-of-life doulas and part owners, walk gently alongside families with presence and empathy. Their aim is to ensure your experience is manageable and smooth, so you can focus on honouring your loved one and saying goodbye, the way it should be.

Sophie, our holistic mortician, shares this commitment to beautiful, sustainable, and eco-friendly care, honouring each life with dignity and reverence.

What we offer

Personal, Family-Led Farewells

Thoughtfully shaped to reflect your values, beliefs, and the unique life being honoured.

Eco-Friendly and Natural Choices

Sustainable options, including natural burial, shrouds, and biodegradable coffins.

Pre-Planning with Gentle Support

Take your time. We offer calm, informed guidance so you can make choices at your own pace.

Our Sanctuary

Filled with light, warmth, and thoughtfully chosen furnishings, our Beresfield sanctuary offers a welcoming and calm atmosphere.

We are also available to meet with you in a setting that feels right for you.

Your Farewell Journey. Gently Supported at Every Step.

We believe every goodbye can be personal, meaningful, and deeply respectful.

At Natural Grace, we walk alongside you offering gentle guidance, honest support, and the space to honour life in a way that feels true to you.

We're here for you, your family, and our community, ready to offer support whenever it's needed.
